

Client	Durham
Date	2003
Number of units	1
Location	Theme bar Walkabouts

Chief Insp Dave Hogg told the North Durham Licensing Committee that the licensing scheme was 'very, very successful'. He also told the magistrates that the city's rising UriLift toilet - paid for by Walkabout - was successful and a second one would be installed shortly. He said the city was getting more 'high class' nightspots. Durham council and theme bar Walkabouts work together to fight street urination successfully.